THE ATTACK ON JOHN W. MACKAY-AC-TIVITY IN REAL ESTATE-A TELE-GRAPH POLE WAR.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.]

San Francisco, Feb. 25.-If the mining stock erank who shot at John W. Mackay yesterday could have heard the comments on his foul deed he would probably have realized in some measure the enormity of his offence. Mr. Mackay is not a man who has ever cultivated the friendship of the public. He is extremely independent, outspoken, often brusque and imperious; but he is so sincere, munly and thoroughly American in all his tastes and feelings that he has always enjoyed the warm regard of Californians. He never poses in public, and is seldom seen in an interview; yet his charities are many, and hundreds of broken-down miners and prospectors could give testimony to his open-handed liberality. It was when men discussed these traits of Mr. Mackay that they grew wroth over the criminal folly of old Rippey, which led him to attempt the life of this man who has never forgotten that he was once Rippey belongs to the large class of worthless "bummers" who hang around Pine-st. Many of these fellows have lost much money, but the larger part have sunk a few hundreds in stock gambling, caught the craze of looking over the tape, and now are of no earthly use. They will not work more than a few days in a month, and as soon as they have provided for the merest necessities, back they come to the street. The police have frequently tried to clear them out, but with This class does much talking, but it does not reflect in any way the opinions of the honest, industrious people of San Francisco, who sincerely regret the foul attack on Mr. Mackay.

The local real estate outlook is brighter now than for many months. All the agents report increased inquiry for good residence property, and life at an end, so the Democratic leaders say, several auction sales of blocks near the Golden Gate have realized good prices. What prevents any lively real estate market here is the large accumulation of money in the local savings banks on which as high an interest rate as 5 4-10 per cent is paid. Most of this money escapes all taxation, and the interest is thus larger than can be realized from any except the best business preperty.

An interesting exhibit at the World's Fair will be a small model of the system of timbering in the Comstock Mines of Nevada, by which the ore was removed withou? danger of the groun! overhead falling in. This system, which consists of square sets of timbers mortised together, was the invention of Philip Deidesheimer, a German mining engineer, who neglected to patent his incenious | bring in the side lights of the famous polo war. The device. It has been generally adopted on this coast in all deep mining, for it is easily superior to all other methods, and is far cheaper.

The estate of Walter S. Hobart is appraised at a little over $5,250,000. The inventory revealed a large amount of valuable city property. The largest single mining item is a one-third interest in the Utica Mine, in Calaveras County, which is worth $1,000,000. Stamboul, the famous stallion, was appraised for $10,000, which is $1,000 less than he brought at auction.

About one year.

Mayor Chapman, of Oakland, has carried on a lively war this week against the telegraph poles that disfigure the streets of that pretty city. The Western Union Company denied his right to remove their poles, but the Mayor didn't stand on any technicality. He promptly had a number of the offensive poles chopped down and carred away to the corporation yard. Then an armistice was agreed upon and the whole matter was referred to the city atterney. A second time the contest was renewed, as the Mayor thought that the company was steding a march on him. It is probable the unsightly poles will be replaced by smaller ones.

This has been one of the dullest weeks on record at local theatres. The only novel event was the first appearance of the Baroness Blanc in her adaptation of Damas's play. Even cosmopolitan San Francisco felt its garge rise over this play, so crudely put upon the stage.

DELIGHTS OF A STEOLL ON THE BEACH-MANY VISITORS AT THE HOTELS.

Atlantic City, Feb. 25 (Special).-The Lenten season Atlantic City, Feb. 25 (special).—The Lenten season has now fully opened, and although the temperature has fallen considerably in the last week, the weather is still comfortable. The heated sun parlors along the beach are in great use during the sharp days. and the women visitors, with their novels and needle work, are daily to be found there.

Washington's Firthday served as an additional in-centive to send numbers of guests to Atlantic City this eek, as the hotel registers have shown.

Of all the means of anvisement afforded to guesthere, there is nothing more inspiring, exhibitating or healthful than a strell along the ocean on the strand The question of paving the streets is now being agitated, and considerable influence is being brought to ar on the council to begin this work as soon as the necessary legislation has been secured. The spirit of improvement has been active this winter, and many of the hotels have been enlarged and improved, and several handsome cottages have been erected. There can be no question that the present season will be the brightest in Atlantic City's present season will be the brightest in Atlantic City's history. In days gone by the residents of this seaside island were just beginning to look for a glimpse of a season at this time of the year, but a change has taken place, and the steady indux of visitors to day is equal to the midsummer rush of years ago. Atlantic's preparations are all completed for the season of 1553 and when her old patrons return they will be greeted with more than the usual signs of improvem a looking to their welfare and comfort.

There are many visitors now at the different hotels.

NEWPORT UNDER THE WEATHER.

THE HARD WINTER PREVENTS IMPROVEMENTS THAT WERE PLANNED.

port, R. L. Feb. 25 (Special).-Unless there I an improvement in the weather before long, it will be impossible to complete all the work in hand for the summer residents for the season of 1893. Grounds outdoor work has been accomplished in the last few weeks. Important improvements which we've contem-plated some time ago have been deferred, it being the opinion of the architects and contractors that the plans could not be carried out until long after the opening of the season. It has been, by all odds, the severest winter experienced here for a decade. The cottagers who remained all winter have had a bitter experience and will be apt to seek the attractions of their usual winter homes next year.

The contract for Cornelius Vanderblit's new villa has been awarded, and the ruins of "The Breakers," destroyed by fire in Navember, will be removed at once. Th new house will be of stone and will be as near fireproof as possible. The architect is Richard M. Hunt, of New-York.

Mr. and Mrs. Fairman Rogers, of Philadelphia, who have been here all winter, closed their villa at Ochre Point on Thursday. They contemplate going South for a few weeks. Stuyvesant Fish, of New-York, has taken a lease of the Peleg Hall villa, at the lower end of Bellevueave. This estate had been leased by Heber R. Bishop, of New-York, who has decided not to visit Newport next season, as a cottage resident, at least.

He has been a constant visitor for years, and his sister, Miss Leavy, constant visitor for years, and his sister. Miss Leavy, was the social leader as an entertainer, at least. The Leavys had, as usual, taken a lease of the Paul rottinge, in Millest, the scene of many social enter-ainments. Other cottagers who have died since the casen of 1892 include Mrs. August Belmont. CONNECTICUT DEMOCRATIC QUARRELS.

LEGISLATIVE POLITICIANS THREATEN THE GOVERNOR WITH PARTY NEGLECT IN THE FUTURE.

Hartford, Feb. 25 (Special).-The rejection of Clarence Deming for Insurance Commissioner by the State Senate was one of the most thorough defeats a Governer of the State has ever experienced. It was generally understood that while Mr. Deming was in no sense an applicant for the place, the Govern determined to appoint him. But it was also given out long before Governor Morris sent in the name But it was also given that the nomination would not be acceptable and that Mr. Deming would not be confirmed. Lakewood, N. J., Feb. 25 (Special).-Although Wash igton's Birthday was anything but holiday weather, here was no diminution of the holiday crowd at thi wort. For a number of seasons this anniversary is brought large numbers of pleasure-seekers to Lakewood. The people who came this year were unlaunted by cold winds and flurries of snow, un delighing parties were the order of the day. In the the prettiest dances of the year at the Laurel House ment at the Lakewood, where Miss Emma Bayard Selig and the Cecilian Male Quartet rendered a finprogramme of eight numbers. were "The Minuet" and "Absolution." Mr. Cleveland has not confined himself quite s closely to his cottage this week, but has gone several times to the railway station to meet expected guests. Among the visitors at the cottage were Senator Carlisle. J. Sterling Morton, Lieutenant-Governor Sheehan, Captain J. P. Cambingham, of the Army, and Colonel and Mrs. Daniel S. Lamont. I. M. Williams, Controller of the New-Jersey Central Railrond, came to see Mr. Cleveland on Monday to arrange for his journey to Washington. Mr. Cleveland has not yet completed the arrangements for this trip, nor has he announced what day he will leave. It is probable that there will be an informal meeting of the men selected to form the Cabinet at Lakewood prior to Mr. Cleveland's departure.

The charity concert given in the pink ball-room of the Laurel-in-the-Pines on Tuesday evening was in every way a gratifying success to the patronesses, Mrs. Cleveland and Mis. Frances P. Freeman. The proceeds are to be divided between the Free Kindergarten Association, of which Mrs. Cleveland is first vice-president, and the Diet Kitchen, where Mrs. Freeman is a director. The following people were heard in a pleasing programme: Mile. Linda da Costa, soprano; Mes Geraidine Morgan, violinist; Paul Tidden, planist, and Frank Lincoln, bumorist. Harlow H. Chandler sang several baritone solos. During Mr. Lincoln's stay here he was the guest of F. P. Freeman. The Misse Dashiell gave a pink tea ant their home in Madison-ave, on Wednesday afternoon. The tea, owhich only the unmarried people were asked, was given in honor of Miss Mabel Dwight, of New York: Miss Haughton, of Brecokline, Mass., and Miss Arms strong, the daughter of General Armstrong, of Hampton, Va. The sale held at the Lakewood Hotel this week under the auspices of the Madison Avenue Woman's Exchange, was successful beyond the most sangulaexpectations of the managers. The exchange sent from town the most attractive of its novelties, includ-ing the new costume doyleys, with their clever repro-ductions of illustrations from "Life," and many beautiful Easter gifts.

The entertainment held in the music room of the Lakewood to night, for the benefit of the Woman David King, of Washington, and William F. Burden, Exchange Building Fund, surpassed all recent entertainments. The following persons appeared: Henri Marteau, the French violinist; Anton Kilksling, solo cellist, of the New-York Symphony Orchestra; Mme. Kate Rolla, soprano; Mm., Clara Poole, contralto, and Louis Dressler, accompanist. Among the patronesses were Mrs. Hooper C. Van Vorst, Mrs. J. Hull-Brown ing, Mrs. J. Hood Wright, Mrs. John Markle, Miss Elizabeth J. Wright, Mrs. Edward W. Ropes, Mrs. S Borg, Mrs. Charles L. Colby and Mrs. Cleveland.

Miss Davis gave a dove musicale at her home, the Gables, on Tuesday afternoon. Miss Geraldine Mor gan, the violinist, played a number of fine selections Miss Davis played plano solos and Miss Alice Kimbal sang in a delightful manner. Among those in attend ance were Miss Remsen, Miss Laura Kimball, the Misses Dashiell, Miss Haughton, Miss Armstrong, Mis Mabel Dwight, Miss Baldwin, Miss Ferris and Miss Elizabeth Smith.

The tens given by Miss 5, S. Crecker at her studio, in Fifth-st., on Tuesday and Friday were pleasant features of the week. Another of these informal ten which bring together many friends and acquaintance will be given this afternoon. Among those who have attended the teas are Mrs. Van Zandt, the wife of ex Governor Van Zandt, of Rhode Island; Mrs. Brenger hof, Mrs. Haddock, Mrs. S. G. Pinckney, Miss Pinck ney and Mrs. F. P. The most unpopular nomination within the party has been that of Edward R. Dovle, of this city, to be Bank Commissioner. It appears that the friends of Doyle, learning that the Governor was being pressed to withdraw the nomination, had the Senate Committee report favorably, and then "railroaded" the confirmation, and thus tied the Governor's hands. The Democratic press is very sure that the Governor has made a mistake in this as well as in some other appointments. At all events it is generally agreed that the party has had enough of Governor Morats, and he will go out of the present term with his public life at an end, so the Democratic leaders say.

The electric road syndicate which is working for a general street railway bill has yielded to the Mayors of the cities of the State and by the attorneys, including Governor Waller, have agreet that the bill which they recommended, which gives the control of the proposed roads to the cities and towns and desaway with the proposed street railway commission, be the one reported favorably. At last accounts the attorneys of the steam railroads, who are fighting the whole scheme, had not come late the arrangement. There seems to be greater interest in this math, than in any other that has yet come before the

When about seven years old my son was afflicted with a skin disease which was very distressing. The first appearance was of little pimples, accompanied by intense itching, soon spreading into sores covered with scabs, except when scratched off. The entire body, except head, was covered. He almost lost the use of his limbs, and was so light I could carry him about like an infant. Used all remedies I could find recommended in medical works for itching without benefit. Applied to different physi-cians, leceiving temporary relief, but the disease was sure to return. I sent for your pamphlet, read it, purchased a set of CUTICURA REMEDIES. I anothred him with the CUTICURA, bathing with the CUTICURA SOAP, and gave small doses of CUTICURA RESOLVENT. Oh, the soothing effect of that CUTICURA! After two years' search for something to allay that terrible itching, what relief to see him sleep sweetly without any in-o scratch. Less than two boxes of CUTICURA. CUTICURA SOAP, and one bottle of the CUTICURA RE-SOLVENT, performed a cure, with no returns. Is now a strong, healthy boy of thirteen. We consider it a remarkable cure, as he had inherited acrofulous hun Mrs. H. E. BOWEN, East Otto, N. Y.
